

American University Library
ALADIN Databases for EndNote

1. WRLC Libraries Catalog

Edit → Connection files → New connection → Connection settings

Server: WRLC Libraries Catalog

Server address: catalog.wrlc.org

Database: Library Catalog

Database Name: Voyager

Element Set: F

Port ID: 7090

Record syntax: OPAC

Text: Latin-1 or ANSEL (default in 9.0)

2. ProQuest Databases

- a. ABI/Inform (Business + Management)
- b. Accounting and Tax
- c. American Periodicals Series
- d. Asian Business
- e. Atlanta Constitution – Historical
- f. Banking and Information Source
- g. Career and Technical Information
- h. Chicago Tribune - Historical
- i. Computing
- j. Dissertations and Theses
- k. Education Journals
- l. European Business
- m. Los Angeles Times – Historical
- n. New York Times – Historical
- o. Research Library
- p. Pharmaceutical News Index
- q. Religion
- r. Science Journals
- s. Social Science Journals
- t. Telecommunications
- u. Wall Street Journal
- v. Washington Post – Historical

- Mark each citation to save.
- Click on “My Research” tab (It will become orange).
- Choose “Export citations” into EndNote.
- Click on “Export directly to ProCite, EndNote, or Reference Manager

If the author's names appear reversed (so that an author's first name appears as their last name in EndNote), follow these instructions:

- From EndNote, go to Edit → Import Filters → Open Filter Manager
- Scroll down to Refman RIS, and click "Edit."
- On the left, choose "Author Parsing."
- Choose "Name Order" to "First Always Precedes Last."
- Close out the box. You should see a prompt asking you if you want to save your changes. Choose "Yes."

3. Ovid Databases

- a. ATLA Religion Database
- b. Biological Abstracts
- c. ERIC (Education)
- d. Library Literature
- e. The Philosophers Index
- f. PsycInfo & PsycArticles

- Check the boxes for citations to save.
- Scroll down to the bottom of the page.
- In the four columns:
 - Keep "Selected Results."
 - Change "Fields" to "Complete Reference."
 - Change "Result Format" to "Direct Export."
 - Change "Action" to "Save."

4. Citation Databases

- a. Arts & Humanities Citation Index
- b. Science Citation Index
- c. Social Sciences Citation Index
- d. Web of Science

- Check boxes for citations to save.
- Select the fields you want on the right side of the screen under "Output Records"
- Click on "Export to Reference Software" on the right side of the screen.

5. JSTOR

Download the JSTOR filter for EndNote by following the directions at:
http://www.jstor.org/help/endnote_filters.html.

- In JSTOR, click on “Save citation.”
- Click on “View saved citations.”
- Click on link “Directly Export Citations into EndNote, ProCite, or Reference Manager
- Click “Open” when it asks whether to open or save the file.

6. ABC-CLIO Databases

- a. America: History and Life
- b. Historical Abstracts

- Tag records to save.
- Click on Export Options.
- Choose Full Entry; under Output Type, choose EndNote, ProCite, Reference Manager.
- Click Send. On the next page, click “Export to Citation Manager.

7. EBSCO Databases

- a. Academic Search Premier
- b. Applied Science & Technology Abstracts
- c. Art Abstracts
- d. Biological & Agricultural Index
- e. Current Biography
- f. Education Abstracts
- g. Essay & General Literature Index
- h. Film & Television Literature Index
- i. Index to Jewish Periodicals
- j. Index to Legal Periodicals & Books
- k. International Political Science Abstracts
- l. Internet and Personal Computing Abstracts
- m. Library, Information Science & Technology Abstracts
- n. The Music Index
- o. Readers Guide Abstracts
- p. Short Story Index
- q. Blackwell Encyclopedia of Management Library

- Click on “add to folder” to save citations.
- Choose “folder” in the upper-right hand corner of the screen.
- Choose “Export”; on the next page choose “Direct Export to EndNote, ProCite, or Reference Manager
- Click “Save.”

Created by Mary Mintz

Last updated by Melissa Becher 1/11/07